National Skills Taxonomy Discussion Paper

National Skills Taxonomy Discussion Paper

DEWR Consult hub

Response received at:
July 31, 2024 at 11:53 AM GMT+10

Response ID:
sbm2f9c962b9e7f5e83eb869

1   Do you agree with this Privacy Statement?

Yes

2   How do you want your submission published?

Public and anonymous

3   If you are responding on behalf of an organisation, what (from the list below) best describes your organisation?

Professional association

4   Your name

██████████████████████████████

5   Your email address

██████████████

6   Would you like to opt-out on being contacted for further information regarding your submission if required?

Yes

7   Please select how you would like to provide a response.

Complete this survey

8 Thank you for choosing to provide a response to the National Skills Taxonomy Discussion Paper.

Not answered

9 Lessons from existing taxonomies

Combination of Singapore Skills Framework with the European skills, competency and qualifications would work well for our profession

10 Potential use cases for a National Skills Taxonomy

Industry based approach - industry roles, job roles and key tasks with skills used.

11 Building a National Skills Taxonomy – design considerations

Information attached to each skill and then proficiency level required for industry roles and job title. Qualifications required for a profession and industry roles and job title all linked

12 Building a National Skills Taxonomy: Implementation considerations

Not answered